MR EDITOR: We had the pleasure of attending the examination of Lewis College at the close of the fall term, which occurred on the 8th, 9th highly creditable to the Board of In-Rev Isaac Chivington-violating mat- struction, as well as to the students, who could not fail to be almost perfect in their studies under the tutorage of President J. C. Hall, A. M., who seems to be so felicitous and happy in his discipline and government that we predict for Lewis College at Glasgow, under his management, a brilliant future. We learned that a daily record is kept of all absent from recitations, church, or other duties, and the average scholarships in each department of study is prepared from daily recitations, monthly Charles Wiles-attempt to break jail reports of the standing of each stu--plead guilty. Sentenced to 3 mouths | dent are read before the school, and then sent to the parents or guardians of such as are minors. Scholarship is marked upon a scale of 100, 100 being perfect, 90 good, 80 poor, and 70 discreditable. The general average for the term just closed would probably reach 95, many reaching 98 and 99, but two falling below 90. We are confident that no college of its years in the West has any better accommodations for educating our children than Lewis College, and no institution can provide better for the moral and religious culture than this young and growing college does, and we would most heartily commend it to our people who desire to educate their sons and daughters, assuring them that their children are as safe at Lewis College from the irreligious and immoral miasmas of the world, as they would be amidst the sauctities of the home circle.

SAMUEL HUFFMAN. Savannah, Mo., Dec. 22, 1875.

A SAD CASE.

A very sad case is that of John Williams, who was brought to this city last Tuesday, from Colorado, and is now confined in the Lunatic Asylum.

Williams was formerly one of the wealthy men of Colorado. He owned a large farm near Denver, and fortune favored him as few are favored. In an unlucky moment he went into Mr. Samuel Scott, who was badly speculations that proved disastrous, and two years ago he found himself without a cent in the world, and his splendid farm under the sheriff's hammer. Shortly after, his wife died. This succession of untoward events wrecked the old gentleman's mind, and he became insane. He was for more than a year confined in the county jail. In hope that an ultimate cure might be effected, Williams was J. D. Shepard has reduced prices brought from Colorado to this State and placed in the asylum, there being as yet no asylum for the insane in Mr. James Howell who has been Colorado. The old gentleman is a living about three miles south of here | fine looking man. His mental aberration manifests itself in a very mild way. For hours Williams will sit with his eyes cast down, mumbling incoherently. He is about sixty years his family that he was going to buy of age. There are strong hopes that some fat cattle for the St. Joe mar- a cure will be effected in his case .-

Doctor Prectorious was interrogaed yesterday respecting the assertion made by the New York Sun, that he had seen a letter or dispatch from Senator Morton asking the Whisky Ring to contribute $90,000 to the Indiana Republican campaign of 1872. He gave a very decided negative, and thus a very big story falls to the urected again; there was a misunder- ground.
